Local National Cancer Survivors Day® Celebrations Set for Sunday, June 2
Sponsored by Hematology-Oncology Associates of CNY

East Syracuse, NY – Hematology-Oncology Associates of CNY (HOA) is proud to announce our fourth annual Celebration of Life for National Cancer Survivors Day will take place Sunday, June 2 at Longbranch Park in Liverpool, 10:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m., and at the Throop Fire House on Beech Tree Road in Throop, 12:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

“This event honors the members of our community who are living with and beyond cancer - the survivors and their loved ones,” explains Maryann Roefaro, CEO. “Our theme is Hope Grows Here, and for the second year we will have a Celebration of Life Remembrance Garden. People wishing to order a plant for the garden should visit our website at hoacny.com. ”

At each location guests will be treated to:

- lunch food
- inspirational speakers
- musical entertainment
- fun activities/games
- door prizes
- exhibits

The event is free for survivors with their family and guests. However, reservations are requested by emailing rsvp@hoacny.com or calling 315-472-7504 ext 1362. Emails need to include RSVP in the subject line, note the number attending at which location, as well as the name and the t-shirt size of the cancer survivor.

About Hematology-Oncology Associates of CNY

The mission HOA is to provide the highest level of quality care in a healing environment for the mind, body and spirit of patients dealing with cancer and blood disorders. A private practice since 1982, HOA is the only Cancer Center in Central New York to receive an American Society of Clinical Oncology’s (ASCO) QOPI designation for high scores on quality measures, and meeting rigorous safety measures established by (ASCO) and the Oncology Nursing Society.
